

PEGGY VISCONTI

Peggy grew up in a large family in a small town in northern Illinois. She now calls St. Louis, Missouri home with her husband of 30 years. Three beautiful daughters, two wonderful sons-in-law, and a precious granddaughter complete the family tree. Peggy earned a B.S. in Elementary Education and a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership. She has served as a teacher, school administrator and regional director within the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Currently she shares her passion for Catholic education as the principal of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque School. She enjoys music, theater, home decorating and spending time with her family.
